Donald R. Schafer

Memorial services for U.S. Navy Seaman Donald Raymond Schafer, 21, of Milwaukie, were held at St. Paul's Methodist Church, Milwaukie. He was killed May 2 off the coast of South Vietnam when an explosion occurred during ship refueling operations.

A 1966 graduate of Milwaukie High School, Seaman Schafer attended Multnomah College. He was assigned to the AOG8 gasoline tanker USS Genesee in Vietnam.

Survivors include his father Dr. Warren Schafer of Milwaukie; his mother Nirene Schafer of Oakland, Calif. two brothers, Robert, serving as a fireman aboard a Navy vessel at Guam, and Kenneth W., and a sister, Barbara.

The family suggests remembrances be made in the form of gifts to the library fund of St. Paul's Methodist Church.
